

Interstate Compact Application Fee

---

What is an application fee?

A fee to process an application to transfer community supervision out of Wisconsin to another state.

How much is the fee?

$150.00 per application

How do I pay the fee?

Payments can be made by cashier check, money order or credit card. The fee can also be paid directly from an inmate account.

Can someone else pay the fee?

Yes. Family and friends are allowed to pay the fee on behalf of the offender. A form can be mailed to the family member to return with payment. Forms are available through your social worker or agent.

Are there any exceptions to the fee?

There are no exceptions to the fee. The transfer fee must be paid prior to submission of the transfer to another state.

What if my transfer is denied?

Payment of the transfer fee does not guarantee acceptance by the receiving state. If a transfer request is denied due to the plan not being valid or the receiving state is not able to verify the information, an offender may submit a new plan*. The application fee will apply for each new plan submitted. If a transfer request is denied due to technical reasons (i.e. missing information), the social worker or agent may re-submit at no additional cost to offender.

Are refunds given?

Transfer application fees are non-refundable.

* Your agent or social worker will verify residence information, including contacting the resident host, prior to submitting the transfer. It is important to submit accurate and up to date information on transfer requests to improve likelihood of acceptance.
